Marcus & Millichap is pleased to present the opportunity to acquire the property located at 3811 Fuqua Street in Houston, Texas. The subject property consists of approximately 14,007 square feet of flex space and is situated on 2.5 acres of land. The single-tenant asset features five grade-level doors, measuring 18' by 15'. With a stabilized concrete yard, the property can accommodate outside storage. As a new construction delivered in 2019, landlords can be aggressive with rental rates during re-leasing. Also, the property's ample office and warehouse space allow for a variety of different uses.

The subject property is located within the Near South submarket of metro Houston. Over the last decade, industrial properties in Near South have largely enjoyed a stable and low vacancy rate, averaging just 3.4 percent and rising no more than 5.8 percent. The vacancy rate closed out 2021 at 2.4 percent and is projected to remain low, with only about 28,000 square feet currently under construction. Strong demand increased market rents by 4.8 percent last year, edging out 2015 for the highest increase in over 20-years. The average market rent of $6.89-per-square-foot gives industrial landlords in Near South a competitive edge in offering more than a 13 percent discount to the overall Houston market (CoStar).

As the fifth most populous metro area in the U.S., Houston houses nearly 6.9 million people in southeastern Texas. The market is composed of nine counties: Harris, Galveston, Brazoria, Fort Bend, Chambers, Montgomery, Austin, Liberty and Waller. The Gulf of Mexico, which borders the metro to the southeast, provides access to markets around the world via the Port of Houston, making it a prime location for import/export. Houston's economy has diversified in recent years, with the healthcare and technology sectors showing strong growth. As Houston's population continues to grow, primarily to the northwest, many companies are expanding to the region to provide goods and services to the increasing population.

ECONOMY

The economy is diversifying to include biotechnology, distribution, nanotechnology and logistics; the metro remains the center of energy production. Local product manufacturing is a large segment of the economy and includes paper, electrical and electronic machinery, iron, steel and petrochemicals. Healthcare is gaining economic prominence. Specialized medical education and training institutions boost the local economy and supply a growing hospital system. The Port of Houston is one of the country's busiest for exports, supplying thousands of jobs and generating billions of dollars in revenue.

METROPLEX GROWTH

The Houston metro is expected to add 720,700 people through 2025, translating to the formation of roughly 263,600 households, generating demand for housing. The homeownership rate of 61 percent slightly trails the national rate of 64 percent. The median home price of roughly $282,000 is $40,000 below the U.S. average. The metro's median household income exceeds $68,000, surpassing the national rate by roughly $5,000.

The metro's favorable location and climate translates to an abundance of outdoor activities. More than a dozen state parks and recreation areas lie within a short drive of Houston, as well as more than 500 local parks and open spaces and various cultural venues and museums. Johnson Space Center is a popular tourist and educational destination. The metro is also known internationally for its medical community and is home to the Texas Medical Center, the largest of its kind in the world. Houston hosts four professional sports teams: the Houston Texans, the Houston Astros, the Houston Rockets and the Houston Dynamo.

INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
