OFFERING SUMMARY

- 11,144-Square-Foot Specialized Industrial Asset Situated on 0.85 Acres
- Features 18' Clear Height, One Dock Door, Three Grade Doors, and 21 Parking Spaces
- Close Proximity to I-69 and U.S. Alt-90, 19 Miles Southwest of Downtown Houston
- Newly Renewed Triple-Net Lease with Church that has Occupied Property for Over 30 Years
- High Demand Submarket with Vacancies Down 250 Basis Points in 2024

Marcus & Millichap is pleased to present the opportunity to acquire the property located at 10511 Corporate Drive in Stafford, Texas, leased to Ismaili Jamatkhana. The subject property consists of approximately 11,144 square feet of specialized industrial space and is situated on 0.85 acres of land.

The single-tenant asset features masonry construction, a clear height of 18 feet, one dock-high door, three grade-level doors, three-phase power, and 21 parking spaces. With close proximity to Interstate 69 and U.S. Route 90 Alternate, the property sits 19 miles southwest of downtown Houston. The tenant recently began a new three-year triple-net lease effective January 2025 with four three-year renewal options. At $12.02 per square foot, the lease escalates annually at 3.33 percent. Ismaili Jamatkhana is a congregation center that has occupied the property for over 30 years. The congregation center of Ismaili Jamatkhana has a strong presence in metro Houston and is currently developing a 458,314 square-foot worship center near downtown, the first center of its kind in the U.S.

The subject property is located within the Sugar Land submarket, containing a sizeable 41.5 million square feet of industrial space. After a historic year in 2023, supply fell back in line with demand last year with net deliveries adding about 976,000 square feet. Demand for industrial space in Sugar Land reached nearly 1.9 million square feet in 2024, pushing the vacancy rate down 250 basis points to 11.5 percent. While availability tightened in 2024, annual rent growth decelerated by 430 basis points from a 20-year high to 0.9 percent. With about 173,000 square feet of industrial space under construction in Sugar Land at the start of 2025, representing less than 1.0 percent of inventory, vacancies and rents will largely be dependent upon demand going forward (CoStar).

As the fifth most populous metro area in the U.S., Houston houses over seven million people in southeastern Texas. The market is composed of nine counties: Harris, Galveston, Brazoria, Fort Bend, Chambers, Montgomery, Austin, Liberty, and Waller. The Gulf of Mexico, which borders the metro to the southeast, provides access to markets around the world via the Port of Houston, making it a prime location for import/export. Houston's economy has diversified in recent years, with the healthcare and technology sectors showing strong growth. As Houston's population continues to grow, primarily to the northwest, many companies are expanding to the region to provide goods and services to the increasing population.

HOUSTON TEXAS

As the fifth-most populous metro area in the United States, Houston houses more than 7.3 million people in southeastern Texas. Roughly one-third of residents live in the city of Houston. The market is composed of nine counties: Harris, Galveston, Brazoria, Fort Bend, Chambers, Montgomery, Austin, Liberty, and Waller. The Gulf of Mexico, which borders the metro to the southeast, provides access to markets around the world via the Port of Houston, making it a prime location for exports. Local industries have diversified from oil to technology and health care. Many companies provide goods and services for the large population growth, which has sprawled primarily to the north and west.

ECONOMY

The economy is diversifying to include biotechnology, distribution, nanotechnology, and logistics. The metro remains the center of energy production. Local product manufacturing is a large segment of the economy and includes paper, electrical and electronic machinery, iron, steel, and petrochemicals. Health care is gaining economic prominence. Specialized medical education and training institutions boost the economy and supply a growing hospital system. The Port of Houston is one of the country's busiest for exports, supplying thousands of jobs and generating billions of dollars in revenue.

DEMOGRAPHICS

The Houston metro is expected to add 700,800 people through 2027, translating to the formation of roughly 260,000 households, generating demand for housing. The homeownership rate of 61 percent trails the national rate of 64 percent. The median home price of roughly $341,000 is $44,000 below the U.S. average. The metro's median household income exceeds $67,700, surpassing the national rate by roughly $1,300.

QUALITY OF LIFE

The metropolitan area's favorable location and climate translates to an abundance of outdoor activities. More than a dozen state parks and recreation areas lie within a short drive of Houston's city limits, as well as more than 500 local parks and open spaces, various cultural venues and museums. Johnson Space Center is a popular tourist and educational destination. The metropolitan area is also known internationally for its medical community and is home to Texas Medical Center, the largest of its kind in the world. Houston hosts four professional sports teams: the Houston Texans, the Houston Astros, the Houston Rockets, and the Houston Dynamo.

INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
