OFFERING SUMMARY

- Newly Renovated Vacant Single-Tenant 16,122-Square-Foot Warehouse on 1.05 Acres
- Features 16' Clear Height, One Grade Door, Wash Station with Floor Drains, Sprinklers, and Heavy Power
 - Improvements Include New Office Buildout, New Roll-Up Door, and LED Lights
- Close Proximity to I-70, Located Between Downtown Denver and Denver International Airport
- Available for Sale or for Lease in Submarket with 5.7% Vacancy vs. 7.0% National Average

Marcus & Millichap is pleased to present the opportunity to acquire the property located at 4825 Oakland Street in Denver, Colorado. The subject property consists of approximately 16,122 square feet of warehouse space and is situated on 1.05 acres of land. The single-tenant asset features tilt-wall construction, a clear height of 16', one grade-level door, a wash station with floor drains, sprinklers, three-phase heavy power with 1,000 amps and 120 to 208 volts, and 30 parking spaces. Recent renovations include a new office buildout, a new roll-up door, and LED lights. Located one mile from Interstate 70 via Peoria Street, the property is only a 20-minute drive from both Downtown Denver and the Denver International Airport. In addition to being available for lease, the vacant property can be acquired for owner use or as a lease-up investment opportunity.

The subject property is positioned within Central East Interstate 70/Montbello, a mid-sized submarket in a desirable location containing 18.5 million square feet of industrial space. Given the submarket's proximity to Downtown Denver, the inventory has largely been unchanged over the last decade due to a lack of available land. In 2024, the submarket recorded its third consecutive year of negative net absorption as -220,000 square feet were vacated on net. However, no new industrial properties were delivered and the vacancy rate increased 120 basis points to 5.7 percent. While availability hit the highest level since 2012, the vacancy rate in the submarket sat well below the 7.0 percent national average (based on the top 50 metros, minimum 10,000 square feet, and Classes A, B, & C). Nonetheless, the increase in vacancies in the submarket decelerated annual rent growth to just 0.6 percent last year, representing the slowest level since rents contracted in 2010. With no industrial properties under construction at the start of 2025, vacancies and rent growth will be dependent upon demand for the foreseeable future (CoStar).

Denver-Aurora-Lakewood metro is home to three million people among 10 counties. Known as the Mile High City, Denver, which is also a county, serves as the state's capitol and largest city, with approximately 716,577 residents. Metro Denver houses 10 Fortune 500 companies, including Newmont Goldcorp, Arrow Electronics, and DISH Network. Aerospace, financial services, and health care are some of the industries that have driven economic growth in the new millennium. The passage of Amendment 64 in November 2012, created a new industry in marijuana, largely consisting of young thriving businesses. Metro Denver provides a high quality of life with rural and urban amenities. Rocky Mountain National Park is less than a two-hour drive from the metro area, and the city houses franchises for all four major sports.

DENVER

COLORADO

The Denver-Aurora-Lakewood metro is at the center of Colorado's Front Range, nestled at the convergence of the Great Plains and the majestic Rocky Mountains. The market consists of 10 counties: Broomfield, Arapahoe, Denver, Adams, Douglas, Jefferson, Clear Creek, Elbert, Gilpin, and Park. Denver, which is both a county and a city, is the largest of each, with approximately 742,800 residents. Denver also houses the state capitol. The eastern and northern reaches of the metro are expected to attract most future development, as land in these areas is relatively flat and affordable. Denver's elevation of 5,280 feet above sea level earns it the nickname "Mile High City."

DEMOGRAPHICS

The metro is expected to add 162,400 new residents during the next five years, as the market benefits from household migration trends that emerged from the health crisis. Gains in higher-paying employment sectors keep the median household income well above the national median. Elevated incomes have allowed 63 percent of households to own their homes, nearly matching the national rate.

QUALITY OF LIFE

The Denver metro area offers residents urban and rural surroundings, in addition to exciting nightlife and outdoor fun. Five professional sports teams play in venues within a short walk or drive of downtown Denver. The local arts community is vibrant, and the city's large park system provides relaxing opportunities to enjoy the outdoors. The allure of the Rocky Mountains keeps residents active. Rocky Mountain National Park is less than two hours from the metro, and offers numerous campsites and hiking trails. Avid skiers and snowboarders are close to world-class ski resorts, such as Vail, Beaver Creek and Copper Mountain. The Denver metropolitan area will continue to grow as the area's high quality of life attracts new residents.
